Meeting Agenda

	internal culture of learning, growth, and accountability, for deeper and more lasting impact, while emerging as a leader in their respective fields.
10:45-10:55	Break	All
10:55-11:55	Presentation – Beyond the Glass Ceiling: Feminism as Emancipatory Project for Us All <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Terrence McCall is student and educator with over 10 years experiencing working with disadvantaged populations in organizing communities internationally to raise social consciousness and build solidarity in pursuit of collective interests.</li> <li>• While often referred to as a leader, Terrence identifies as a servant of The People, and takes great pride in his willingness to give back the life he has received from The People as his faith is not in himself but in The People. By chance, in spite of residing in a society organized around patriarchy, nearly all of his mentors have been women, an experience he uses to challenge popular assumptions and stereotypes revolving around the ways gender is constructed ideologically, as well as the established norms related to concepts such as strength, power, and leadership.</li> </ul>	Terrance McCall
11:55-12:00	Closing Remarks	Deirdre Bissonnette
